

Canine Musical Freestyle Workshop

with Julie Flanery, CPDT

Hosted by Dancin' Woofs Dog Training

Saturday 9:00 - 4:00 pm

July 28, 2007

Canine Freestyle is a dog sport that combines obedience and tricks, teamwork and music. It is built upon the foundation of a positive working relationship between the dog and handler team. This workshop will show you how to train basic freestyle behaviors and sequence them together to create a musical freestyle routine with your dog! Come join us in learning the fun-damentals of this exciting new sport! Workshop location: Dancin' Woofs Dog Training; 63027 Lower Meadow Dr.

For Starters and Beginners with little or no freestyle experience

About Julie: Julie has been competing in Musical Freestyle since 1999 and was the first on the west coast to title a dog in the sport. She has since placed many freestyle titles on her dogs and earned High Technical merit and High Artistic Merit in both Musical Freestyle and Heelwork to Music Divisions in several competitions. In 2001 she was named "Trainer of the Year" by the World Canine Freestyle Organization and has been an invited presenter across the U.S. She has been a competition freestyle judge for WCFO since 2003 and the founder and President of Dogs Gone Dancin' Canine Musical Freestyle Club, the largest and most active freestyle club on the west coast. "Julie's energy and enthusiasm are un-matched! Her workshops are both fun and informative and will leave you wanting more!"
